

condition which instinctively they feel ought to and are to exist. Not until the race perceives the fact that the greater life is to be gained by brotherly love and helpfulness, which means the cross of self-sacrifice, can it see to hail the dawn of God's new creation with that victorious cry—"It is finished!"—in which the heartache of centuries shall breathe its last agony.

Until all social, political, financial structures rise out of the redemptive principle of the true life, they will be but new Babel-towers of confusion, from which men will flee in dispute to renew sad and fruitless efforts after peace and rest, unable still to understand or comprehend each other.

A Calvary must come before the olive, and only through the way of self-renewal can our social institutions ascend and reach the final consummation of millennial accomplishment and good. There will still be confusion and wilderness wandering until the race shall be knit into one great helpful family by the world wide love of Jesus Christ. When we cease our struggles to realize happiness through selfishness and oppression and are actuated by the broadest spirit of humanity as revealed in Christ, and our puny plans are allowed up in the deep sweep of God's will in our dealings with each other, then shall we see the New Jerusalem descending out of heaven to remain with men, with all the "glorious things that are spoken of it," whose foundations are righteousness, and there shall be no curse any more, and there shall be no night any more of sin, ignorance, ignominy, death, for the Lord God will give them new light and they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee again. Oh, that all would unite with heavenly forces to disseminate the blessings and privileges to humanity through the espousal of the greater Christ.

The doctor at the evening service continued the same theme, and showed that a larger conception of the Greater Christ is needed in the state and body politic. He took the ground that as the state is by birth a divine organism, and its motive righteousness, a Congress, legislature or municipal council has no moral right to sit for any other purpose than God sits upon the throne, namely, to help man upward; that whatever would be wrong in Christ is wrong in the state everywhere. If it would be wrong for Christ to keep a liquor saloon, it is wrong for the state to profit by or protect any business that debauches the life and character of its citizens and opens avenues of degradation and temptation to the young.

QUARTERLY MEETING
At Wesley M. E. Church Yesterday—Rev. Dr. King's Sermon.

The quarterly meeting was held at Wesley M. E. church by Rev. L. H. J. King in the absence of the presiding elder yesterday. A general love feast was held in the morning at 9:30. Many testimonies were given, and the meeting was very spiritual throughout. At 10:30 a large congregation listened to a sermon by Rev. Mr. King from the text, Peter 2:16, "For we have not followed a cunningly devised fable when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of His majesty."

The great difference between Christianity and false religion is that Christianity rests on facts and the false on fallacies; this is a vast difference. Jesus Christ the founder of our religion, is an historic character as much as is Caesar, Cromwell or Napoleon. The incidents of his life are just as well attested as any other historical facts. He lived in the full blaze of both Roman and Grecian civilization, and they have handed down to us, by both the sacred and profane historian. His deeds were open to all the known world at the time he lived, and we have no knowledge of their being called in question. Just fifty days after his death Peter in his great sermon charged those to whom he preached that they had murdered the prince of peace, and none contradicted him. At the same time three thousand believed in him and were baptized.

The preaching of the Apostles consisted largely in merely a statement of the facts of His life, His death and His resurrection. These Apostles were not theorists. They preached Christ. They declared the facts, and their hearers had the opportunity of knowing whether they were true or false. Their preaching was successful. These things are incredible if what they preached was a cunningly devised fable. The priests, who hated Christ and would have done all in their power to destroy his power, did not even attempt to do so, but many of them believed in Him and were converted.

What more do we need to establish the authenticity of our Christianity? We need nothing—we can rest on this alone. But we have more. The prophets foretold it all thousands of years before it came to pass. Every event of His life from His miraculous birth until in a chariot of clouds He went back to His Father was foretold centuries before He was born. This Peter considered was better testimony than that of eye witnesses. It was the testimony of God Himself, for He spoke through the prophets. But finally he appeals to the experience of Christ in the heart, the work of the Holy Spirit in the regeneration, the sanctifying of the human soul.

The speaker referred to this as the crowning argument. This every believer knows for himself and no one can take this away from him. It will ever abide there as a living witness of the truth of the doctrines of Christianity. The Holy Spirit in a believing heart is the greatest witness of all. The world cannot gainay this witness. No man can doubt his own consciousness.

After the sermon, the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered, the service being a very solemn one. A large number partook. Rev. Mr. King also spoke at night to a large and appreciative audience. He is a good speaker and very earnest in his manner of delivery, carrying his audience right along with him in every point made. He is the worthy pastor of Marshall circuit.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS
To the Graduating Class of Lincoln School Delivered Yesterday.

A large audience of interested listeners assembled at Simpson M. E. church yesterday, to hear Rev. R. S. Smith deliver the baccalaureate address to the Lincoln school class of 1895. The discourse was replete with gems of salient truth throughout and made a very noticeable impression. All true education, said the speaker, must begin at the cradle. The home, the church and the school were most eloquently spoken of as factors in the true uplifting of a people.

He warned the class against the popular delusion that their study days ended at commencement. On the other hand, said he, your sphere of usefulness has just begun. Life's harvest is ripe and invites to its fruitful fields those who have willing hands to work, minds to direct and hearts to love. He who takes into the busy world a stout heart, willing hands and a clear conscience need have no fears for his future.

The music for the occasion was especially appropriate, and rendered most acceptably by the church choir.

The school holds its field day at the park to-morrow, and a fine list of prizes will be contested for by the boys.

EPWORTH LEAGUE WORK
At the North Street M. E. Church—The Fourth Anniversary Celebrated.

Last evening at the North street M. E. church the Epworth League of that church celebrated its fourth anniversary and the sixth anniversary of the league with an appropriate programme. Members of the league spoke on the wonderful growth of the order since its inception at Cleveland six years ago, and the amount of spiritual good it has done among the young. The numbers on the programme were interspersed with selections by the quartette.

Mr. George Serig had a well prepared paper telling of the history of the North street league. It was first organized in May, 1891, with fifteen members and a year later had increased to sixty-five members. Then came an interval when the league workers seemed to lag and for a long time no meetings were held. However, when, Mr. Johnson entered upon the pastorate of the church there was a revival of Epworth sentiment, and in February, 1894, a reorganization took place, with a membership of twenty, and since the work has progressed steadily until to-day the membership is ninety-four.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THERE were six cases in the police court Saturday morning and three in the evening.

PETER FELSHEM, the Fulton butcher, fell from a ladder Saturday and fractured his arm.

TWELVE thousand five hundred dollars was distributed among the employees at the Elma-Standard mill on Saturday.

SATURDAY's picnic at Mozart park, given by the stationery engineers' society, was one of the most enjoyable and successful of the season.

A SMALL child of Mr. William Mullen, residing on Twenty-seventh street, fell from a rocking chair and broke its right leg. Dr. Ridgeway was called in and reduced the fracture.

COMPLAINTS are frequently heard lately that the city hall clock does not keep good time. It has been out of whack for several days, much to the inconvenience of those who use it.

"THE MORNING," the excellent magazine published by the pupils of Mt. do Chantal, is out for June, an excellent number to close the school year. It seems to improve steadily.

A WEDDING was celebrated at police headquarters yesterday forenoon, the contracting parties being from Bellaire and Rev. Dr. Swops officiating. There was said to be a romance behind the case.

The dipping department in the tin mill at the Elma-Standard will hereafter commence working on Sunday night at 9 o'clock instead of 5 on Monday morning. This was commenced last night.

The public school commencement will be held at the Opera House Wednesday evening, the Lincoln school commencement Thursday evening and Seguin institute annual concert on Friday evening.

SOME fishermen who have had trot lines set at Bellaire for some time declare there is a catfish there as long as their skill. It must be the same one that caused so much talk last summer, when it was located in the back river dam, but it has grown about seven feet since then.

A BOY named George Withelm was arrested Saturday on a warrant sworn out before Squire Gillespie, on the 13th inst., alleging profane cursing at the wife and children of complainant, Mr. Board. The lad made earnest promises of good behavior in the future, and was allowed to go, but the case will be held over his head, contingent upon future good behavior.

The following pupils of the public schools of this city completed their German examinations in the rooms of the board of education last Thursday: Florence Schockey, Lizzie Koch, Katie Weller, Lenora Kraemer and Hermann Bromer. The examination was conducted by Dr. Ulrich, who was highly pleased with the result.

THE Happy Six fishing club, composed of well known East Wheeling men, are preparing to go into camp twenty miles up Big Wheeling creek, at Harsh's sugar camp. The club is made up as follows: Captain, Harry Jones; hunters and fishermen, Henry Timney, Will Auth, Jake Dick, John Balzer, Tony Harris, and Philip Eckhart, teamster. The club stands high.

ABOUT PEOPLE.
Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Dr. C. A. Wingerter left for the east Saturday.

Miss Genevieve Campbell, of the South Side, is visiting friends at Columbus.

Mrs. H. Whiting, of Sewickley, Pa., is visiting Mrs. George K. McNeelon, on Twelfth street.

Mr. Robert T. Hill, who has been spending a week or two in Chicago, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Frank J. Ballard, of the Evening Repository, Canton, O., accompanied the excursion to this city yesterday.

Mr. Dan Horkheimer returned from Baltimore Saturday, and reports Mr. A. D. Adler getting along very satisfactorily.

Rev. A. J. Ivey, of the First Baptist church, addressed an open meeting of the Y. M. C. A., of Martin's Ferry, yesterday.

Mr. M. F. Tighe has a badly dislocated hand, caused by being thrown from a horse that had become frightened at a passing bicycle, on Saturday.

Mr. Harry Hall, of the Wheeling Coffee Company, will next month lead to the altar a handsome young lady of Glen Easton, but is keeping it a great secret from his friends.

Mr. Will Kepper, one of the sufferers from the Cameron fire, who has been seriously ill for several days at his home on Fourteenth street, is improving and will be able to return to Cameron soon.

IN your blood is the cause of that tired, languid feeling. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes rich, red blood and gives renewed vigor.

SEASON tickets and reserved opera chairs in the grand stand for the spring race meeting at the State Fair grounds are on sale at the McClure House cigar stand.

SOMEWHERE I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. Simon Goldbaum, San Luis Rey, Cal.

THE COLERAIN WELL
Gets a Beautiful Sand when it was not Expected.

A TERRIFIC RUSH OF GAS FOLLOWS
And the Fires have to be Put out to Avoid Trouble—Great Excitement Prevails in the Neighborhood—The Well will be Drilled in To-day—It Gives Bright Promise.

At last the Colerain well, of which so many conflicting stories have been told, has reached the sand, and there is every promise of a good oil producer. The owners are correspondingly jubilant, and the greatest excitement prevails in the whole section of country around. It was not intended to drill the well in until to-day, but the water was getting so low that it was feared it would give out entirely before the work could be done, and so orders were given that work should continue all night Saturday night.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. A. F. Gasmiro and Col. Thompson, of this city, who own the large share of the well, drove out to it. As they approached they could hear the roar of gas distinctly when yet nearly a mile away. They found the men putting out the fires under the boilers and in the forge, lest the gas should ignite. It was found that when about 1,870 feet down the drill had struck the Borea grit sand, with unmistakable signs of oil, but when the drill was six or eight inches in the sand the gas rushed out so that the engine had to be shut down without even drawing out the tools. With the escaping gas is quite a showing of oil spraying.

The boilers and forge will be moved back at once, and the work of drilling in the well for oil will proceed this afternoon, and ought to be done by evening. The owners are very confident of striking a good flow. The well is entirely a wild-cat affair, and the location was chosen by Dr. Gasmiro with a view to its direction from known fields. The Standard company put down a well some distance from it without getting oil, and nearly all the territory about is covered by leases. The present company has its territory well protected, and placards were posted warning oil trespassers. There was a great rush of people to the scene in a very short time after the gas was reached, and the greatest excitement prevails.

Summer Season at the Grand.
This evening Crawford & Manning's company will open a week's engagement at the Grand, presenting a great vaudeville show. The company is made up of some of the best people in their lines, and the programme is varied and attractive. Manager Feinler, with characteristic enterprise, has introduced a new idea in Wheeling, using a set of powerful electric fans and large quantities of ice to cool and purify the atmosphere in the theatre. This will make it pleasant, and ought to draw a large crowd, for the house will be pleasanter than outdoors on a sultry night. The people of Wheeling have shown that they appreciate a good thing in the theatrical line as well as in any other, and no doubt Manager Feinler's experiment will prove a success.

A Wheelman's Bad Fall.
Harry Schmechel, son of F. Schmechel, the South Market street furniture dealer, met with what might have been a very serious accident yesterday morning, while riding his bicycle up Baga's run. His wheel struck a stone on the road, throwing him off and over an embankment about ten feet high, rendering him unconscious and cutting his face badly. The doctor found that no bones were broken, but he was very badly bruised, and had to be removed to his home in a wagon.

Funeral Directors' Meeting.
The first convention of the Undertakers' Association of the state meets at Fairmont to-morrow. This evening Mr. Alex. Frow, president; D. M. Thornburg, Elm Grove, secretary; G. E. Mendel, P. J. Altmyer and others will leave for that point. It is expected that much good will be the outcome of this convention in the manner of preparing the corpse for burial and also reforms in the management of funerals.

We recommend Dr. Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure because we believe it a safe and reliable remedy. Its good effects are shown at once in cases of Cholera Morbus and similar complaints. Logan Drug Co., Wheeling, W. Va.; B. F. Peabody, Benwood, and Bowie & Co., Bridgeport, O.

Excursion Rates to the Rockies.
July 3d, 4th and 5th excursion tickets to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Manitou will be sold over Pennsylvania Lines. J. G. TOLLISON, Ticket Agent, Wheeling, or MACWATERS, 1127 Liberty street, will tell you all about it if you ask.

Nervousness
Is really only another name for impure blood, for no person is weak and nervous whose blood is perfectly pure.

When the blood is full of the germs of disease, and lacking in the red corpuscles which give it vitality, when it fails to properly nourish the organs and tissues of the body, what can you expect but that tired feeling and nervousness?

Of course Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Catarrh and Rheumatism are, universally recognized as blood diseases, for which Hood's Sarsaparilla, as the best blood purifier, is everywhere acknowledged the greatest remedy.

Therefore, as Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases, it is the best remedy for that condition of the blood which causes Nervousness.

It is a false idea to think you are curing your nervousness when you are taking a preparation which only cures your nerves! It is like trying to drown your sorrows in the flowing bowl. They are sure to return, ten-fold worse.

We wish to make most impressive, then, this truth:

You cannot purify your blood by DEADENING or QUIETING your nerves with opiate, narcotic or nerve compounds. If you take such articles you are only TRIVILING with your troubles. There is sure to be a REACTION which will leave you worse than you were before.

Why not then, take the true course, follow the bee-line to the state of health, purify your blood and cure your nervousness by taking
